TRAINING COURSE

INFOPACK

SUMMARY

Our project is focused on a 9-day training course including travel days on the refugee crisis, as it is recorded mainly within the European Union countries during the last years. This TC will give the opportunity to 27 people from 8 different European countries to be educated, share their knowledge and elaborate on a topic which is extremely crucial nowadays and which is the refugee crisis. With regard to the participants: Cross-cultural intercultural awareness through reflection on their own culture and the values and norms of other cultures. Dealing with culturally significant communication styles and obtaining intercultural communication competence. Awareness of one's own dealing with conflicts, for culturally influenced conflict styles, and the development and practice of concrete action strategies for handling intercultural conflicts.

OBJECTIVES

- Increase the empathy of the participants towards the refugee issue and populations;
- Explore the dimensions of refugee crisis, within the framework of human rights and legal recognition ;
 - Work on ideas for local and international volunteering and educational initiatives to tackle the refugee crisis;
- Give participants the space to share good practices and personal experiences;
- Raise awareness on the cultural differences between different European countries;
- Acknowledge Erasmus Plus Program as a tool for intercultural learning;
- Develop an informal network of youth workers and youth organisations tackling to the refugee crises and promoting follow up projects and initiatives.
